Failure to perform duties shall be defined as three consecutive unexcused absences from regularly scheduled meetings.

The Officers shall be elected at the Annual meeting held in odd numbered years, shall take office immediately following the election, and shall serve for two years, or until their successors are elected or appointed.

If any elective office becomes vacant, with the exception of that of President, or, if any new office is created by an Amendment to this constitution, the Board of Directors, at a regular meeting shall choose a member to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of such vacant office or to fill the newly created office.

If the office of the President becomes vacant it shall be filled by the Vice President.

Article 7: DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS

President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise provided in the Constitution or By-Laws, he shall appoint all committees, instruct them in their duties, and serve as member ex-officio of all committees. He shall exercise general supervision over the programs and activities of the Association, and propose new activities as he believes would further the objectives thereof. He may appoint, pro-tem, and officer in the place of any absentee officer at a meeting. He shall make a report at the Annual Meeting and regular activity reports to the general membership.

Vice President. He shall assist the President in carrying out the duties of his office, and shall serve as coordinator of all services provided to Association Members. In the absence of the President, or in case of his inability to act, the Vice President shall preside at meetings and perform all of the duties of the President.

Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors; he shall prepare for the use of the President at any such meeting an agenda of the business to be transacted. He shall also keep lists of all standing and special committee members and chairman, and shall see that all reports passed in are properly dated and signed before being filed. He shall read the minutes, all reports and communications to be presented to the Association or the Directors. The Secretary shall also maintain permanent files of all minutes and electronically transfer the files needed for posting minutes to the website.

Treasurer. The Treasurer shall receive and give receipts for all funds of the Association and shall deposit them in the name of the Association, in a bank selected by the Board of Directors. He shall keep a checkbook in the usual form and retain all cancelled checks, maintain a file of all bills and vouchers paid, and books of account in which all receipts and disbursements of funds shall be entered. At each regular meeting of the Board of Directors, he shall have all such records and books at hand, and shall make a written monthly financial report to the Board, in which all receipts and disbursements shall be shown, and the beginning and ending balance. At the October meeting he shall submit to the Board an annual financial report, covering the period October 1 – September 30, which shall be the fiscal year. In the year in which a newly elected Treasurer shall succeed him, the outgoing Treasurer shall prepare for the incoming Treasurer a financial statement covering the period October 1 to the last day of the month immediately prior to the date of the incoming Treasurer assumes office. He shall present a brief financial report, which may be oral, to the Association at the Annual Meeting. The Treasurer shall sign all checks drawn on the bank account of the Association for the expenditures which shall be authorized by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee, as provided in these By-Laws. A Board of Directors member who is not a signer on the initial contract will sign checks in payment of contracts. The Treasurer shall acknowledge all contributions made to the Association in accordance with tax exempt contribution regulations.

Article 8: ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Association shall be scheduled for October. Terms of office shall begin and expire at the conclusion of the annual meeting held in odd numbered years.

Article 9: QUORUM

Fifteen members of the Association shall constitute a quorum for the annual meeting. Six voting members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for Board of Directors meetings.

Article 10: AMENDMENTS

The Constitution and By-laws may be amended at the annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of those present.

Article 11: GENDER PRONOUNS

“He” as used in this document refers to an association member or officer. “She” may be substituted as appropriate.

Article 12: SUPERCESSION

This document supersedes all previously made Constitution and By-laws.
